Note from Ms. Potts

This Friday marks the end of third quarter. The students are continuing to work on their Wax Museum projects. There was a paper sent home explaining the deadlines and due dates the students must follow. The Wax Museum will be during conferences on March 29 from 5:00-5:30 pm.

What we are learning-

Religion- This week in religion, we will learn why we take the Lord's Supper often, how passover ties to the Lord's Supper, how liturgical arts encourage faith, and will have a review day.

Math- This week in math, we have a test Monday, then continue our learning on multiplication facts 11s and 12s, multiplying three numbers, multiplying multiples of ten, and length (centimeters, meters, and kilometers).

Literacy- During writing, the students will finish completing their rough drafts and final drafts for their biography writing. During reading, we will be incorporating the importance of predicting before and during reading.

Social Studies- This week we will begin chapter 9 on Our American Culture. We will reading lesson one of moving to new places, apply the concept to our workbook pages, and finish out the week with reading lesson two on sharing cultures.

Science- This week we will begin chapter 10 on Changes in Matter. We will read lesson one on changes of state. We will complete three labs on this topic. We will then finish out the week with reading lesson two on physical changes.

SPRING CLEAN-UP BEGINS THIS SATURDAY, MARCH 4th

We invite you to join Salem's Board of Property Management for the Annual Spring Clean Up of our Church and School Grounds. We will meet every Saturday in March (4th, 11th, 18th, and 25th) at 8:30 a.m. and work until 12:00 noon. Bring your work gloves, rake (and other garden tools) and join the fun to make our property stand out and impress the rest of our Affton community!

SALEM'S NEW SUNDAY MORNING ADULT BIBLE STUDY BEGINS THIS SUNDAY, MARCH 5th

Our Lenten theme for 2017 is "The Crucified King." Each week we will learn more about Jesus' royal sacrifice for us on the cross as our Savior and King. What does it mean that your King gave up His life for you? Dig deeper into St. Matthew's account of our Lord's Passion in our Sunday Morning Bible Study, "The Crucified King," starting this Sunday, March 5th in the Fellowship Hall from 9:20 – 10:10 a.m. This study is for adults of all ages, as well as high school and college students. We look forward to seeing you there!

MIDDLE SCHOOL BIBLE CLASS for 6th – 8th Grade Students: Sunday mornings in the Conference Room from 9:20 – 10:10 a.m., led by and Mr. John Wittmayer.

This study is entitled "One God, Many gods," as we examine and compare other religious faiths.

SUNDAY SCHOOL for potty-trained children, ages 3 – 5th grade, meets at 9:20 a.m. on Sunday mornings in the Music Room at school. We are learning how JESUS shows us He is TRUE GOD. THIS Sunday, March 5th: "Jesus Calls Matthew." We sinners rejoice, for we too have been called from our own "pigsty" of sin to dine with Jesus around His table, and to be a friend of the Friend of sinners. Consider discussing, "How did Jesus call Matthew to be one of His followers? How and why does Jesus call us to follow Him?"

Children ages 3 and younger are invited to our staffed nursery during Bible Study/Sunday School time.

LHSS CHOIR CONCERT THIS SUNDAY, MARCH 5th

The Lutheran High School South choirs present their annual Sacred Concert at St. John's Lutheran Church in Arnold this Sunday, March 5th at 3:30 p.m. The four high school choirs, the middle school Junior Singers, and the St. John's School choir will perform. Come enjoy an afternoon of sacred song at this free concert. Participants include Salem alumni, Chris Burns, Justin Bishop-Case and Kritika Basnet, with the Lancer Singers, and Salem 8th grader, Melisa Muratovic, with the Junior Singers.

OUR MARCH FOOD DRIVE for the AFFTON CHRISTIAN FOOD PANTRY

During the month of March, we encourage you to contribute the following food items for the Affton Christian food Pantry: CHUNKY SOUPS, CANNED CHILI, CANNED CHICKEN & DUMPLINGS, CANNED PASTAS. Your donations of other food and personal items are always welcome! Please place your items in or around the ACFP bin located at the bottom of the atrium stairs at church. Thank you!

SALEM'S "PIC-A-DAY MEDITATIONS" FOR LENT STARTED ON ASH WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1st

This Lent you can take part in a social media project at Salem called Pic-a-Day Meditations. Salem Lutheran Church can be found on Facebook by searching "@salemaffton." Salem Lutheran School can be found on Facebook by searching "@SalemLutheranSchoolAffton". Salem Lutheran Church and School provides a combined Twitter feed which can be found by searching "@salemaffton." Salem Lutheran Church and School's combined Instagram page can be found by searching "@salemaffton." Our mid-week Lenten theme is The Crucified King, from St. Matthew's account of our Lord's Passion. Each day you can find a different word from the Gospel and a meditation question at any of Salem's social media platforms listed above. Post a photo or a comment about that word and why it is important in your spiritual life. Be sure to use the hashtag for each day's word (e.g., #word) along with the hashtags #salemaffton and #thecrucifiedking. This is a way for you to be engaged by the Scriptures and by our theme throughout Lent.
