

The third graders will display their living wax museum on Wednesday, March 29. We will set up the wax museum and have it open in the afternoon for the other classrooms to come for a visit on Wednesday after lunches have been served and then again from 5:00-5:30 in the cafeteria. The wax museum is scheduled on Wednesday during the conference break time.

Due dates-

Friday, March 10-the paper is due- can be handwritten or typed

Thursday, March 16 the script/speech is due- anywhere from about 30 seconds up a minute is good. We will videotape one another in class to practice.

The display board is due on Monday, March 27.

For the day of the performance (March 29) your child will need:

a costume that represents the type of clothing the famous person would have worn. Your child will be wearing the costume for the presentation.

Two or more props that symbolize the person

The display board

A button to make the person come to life

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

Thank you,

Emily Potts